

Dr. Sergey Sorin

Dr. Sergey Sorin, M.D., DABFM, a renowned healer, educator and author began his career in traditional medicine studying the fields of Family Medicine, Urgent Care, Occupational Medicine and Emergency Medicine. He earned his degree from SUNY Health Sciences Center at Brooklyn School of Medicine. Even during his training (and since early childhood), Dr. Sorin has been interested in the holistic approach. This includes focusing his education and giving grand rounds and other presentations on the Non-Conventional modalities including meditation and “Complementary and Alternative Medicine” modalities.

Dr. Sorin has been the recipient of the Kalberman Award for Excellence in Chemistry and has an advanced certificate in Health Care Management from SUNY Health Science Center at Stony Brook University. He has served as a Medical Director at Veterans Administration Hospital in Bath, NY as well serving in administrative capacity at Delphi Healthcare.

After a life-altering diagnosis of colon cancer in 2007, Dr. Sorin began to apply his knowledge of the Mind, Body and Spirit in his personal and professional life. He credits this event in his life, with starting to become fully awake and mindful of the essential nature of the Body, Mind and Spirit in a person’s life.

In April, 2016 while giving a presentation and workshop in Kansas City, MO, Dr. Sorin met and subsequently joined forces with one of the world’s leading experts in pain, anxiety, depression and chronic disease management, Dr. Norm Shealy. This was a welcome and natural progression for Dr. Sorin given his lifetime interest and focused training.
