

Dr. Thornton Streeter

Dr. Thornton Streeter DSc. is an official representative for AISBBS to the United Nations (ECOSOC) and special Advisor to the ICNM, the UK's leading authority on Complementary and Natural Medicine. He is Director of the Centre for Biofield Sciences (www.biofieldsciences.com, www.biofieldscience.org) a Faculty head of the Zoroastrian College section of Human Biofield Research and since 2004 has been appointed as a student thesis guide.

As a Doctor of Science, (Mumbai, India), Thornton has served as a special advisor to the Institute of Complementary Natural Medicine ICNM in London 2004, and later was on the Program Committee for All India Institute of Medical Sciences & Indian Institute of Technology's National Seminar on Scientific validation and Technical evaluation of Ancient Medical Systems in 2006. In 2007, Dr. Streeter served on the Advisory Board for Uniting Technologies USA. and also on the Advisory Board BodyTalk International USA. In 2008 he served on the Board of Directors of the North American Academy of Energy Medicine (NAAcEM).

Thornton holds a PIP Biofield Imaging Diploma and is a qualified trainer and guide to over 800 students throughout the world